

KARL WEIERSTRASS
Department of Mathematics
Nowhere University
City, State 00000-1111 USA

Education

- 1976 UNIVERSITY OF SOMEPLACE
Doctor of Philosophy in Mathematics, April 1976
- 1971 SOMEPLACE ELSE UNIVERSITY
Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics, June 1971

Academic Positions

- 1997–98 Resident Fellow, An Institute
- 1993– Professor of Mathematics, Nowhere University
- 1991–92 Visiting Fellow, University of Someplace
- 1984–85 Visiting Fellow, University of Someplace
- 1983–92 Associate Professor of Mathematics, Nowhere University
- 1976–82 Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Nowhere University
- 1971–75 Teaching Assistant, University of Someplace
- 1970 Teaching Assistant, National Science Foundation Mathematics Program, University of Could-beanywhere

Research Interests

Math stuff generally.
Numbers and all that.

Research Projects: Current and Planned

Prime numbers
Not so prime numbers

Research Submissions

- 2006 “Why I Love Primes,” Archive for History of Prime Numbers, under review.
- 2006 “It’s Been a Prime Life: My Story,” Studies in History and Philosophy of Primes, under review.

Research Publications

- 2006 “Higher Primes, Like 7,” Unbelievable Mathematica, to appear.

- 2006 “The Prime Number 5,” Could Not be Worse Mathematics, to appear.
- 2006 “The Prime Number 3,” Archive of Even Worse Mathematics 60 (2006), 157–207.
- 2004 “The Prime Number 2,” Journal of Not So Good Mathematics 58 (2004), 283–321.
- 1976 “The First Prime Numbers,” Doctoral Dissertation, University of Someplace, April, 1976.

Book Reviews

- 2001 Here’s a book review.
- 2000 And another one.

Major Invited Talks

- 1997 Talk Number 4.
- 1993 Talk Number 3.
- 1992 Talk Number 2.
- 1991 Talk Number 1.

Honors and Awards

- 2000 Invited to be the 2001–2002 Daft Lecturer at the University of Overthere
- 2000 Nowhere University Excellence in Teaching Award, June 2000.

Service

Reviewer for Journal of Abstruse Generalizations, Archive for the True but Trivial.

Affiliations

Mathematical Association of America
American Mathematical Society